

OCP SENIOR CREDIT FUND

Monthly Update as at July 31, 2015

Investment Rationale and Objectives

OCP Senior Credit Fund provides Unitholders with exposure to the performance of an actively managed, diversified portfolio comprised primarily of first lien floating rate senior secured loans of non-investment grade North American issuers.

The Fund's objectives are: (i) provide Unitholders with attractive, quarterly, tax-advantaged distributions, currently targeted to be $0.50 per annum, representing an annual yield of 5% based on the original issue price of $10.00 per Unit; (ii) preserve capital; and (iii) generate enhanced returns through increasing cash flow to the portfolio as interest rates rise.

Commentary

Net performance of OCP Senior Credit Fund (the "Fund") was 0.40% and 3.98% for July and year-to-date, respectively. For the month of July, the CS Leveraged Loan, CS High Yield and S&P 500 TR indexes returned 0.09%, (0.70%) and 2.10%, respectively.

Most of the Fund's positions contributed positively to performance, although collectively, gains were modest. In July, exposure to the Caesars complex was among the largest positive contributors to performance. While few positions detracted from performance, Arch Coal had the most significant negative impact.

The Fund's investment in Caesars' CERP first lien term loans traded up this month. CERP owns and operates six casinos and two other properties. Last month, we felt the market overreacted to litigation surrounding parent guarantees at CERP's bankrupt sister entity, Caesars' Entertainment Operating Co. (CEOC); consistent with our expectations, market concerns abated and the Fund's position traded up. In other news, CEOC entered into a restructuring agreement with holders of a significant amount of its second lien debt, moving CEOC a step closer to a resolution which would leave our CERP loans unimpaired.

The Fund's investment in Arch Coal's loans declined in July, due a combination of continued weakness in global commodity prices and the company's announcement of a debt exchange offer which would negatively impact the value of the loans. Arch's proposed exchange offer would allow unsecured bondholders to exchange their debt, at a discount, for new secured loans. While the transaction would reduce overall debt and interest expense, it would increase the amount of secured loans on the company's balance sheet and dilute value for secured lenders; as a result, existing lenders are pushing back on the current proposal.

You will usually pay brokerage fees to your dealer if you purchase or sell units of the investment fund on the Toronto Stock Exchange ("TSX"). If the units are purchased or sold on the TSX, investors may pay more than the current net asset value when buying units of the investment fund and may receive less than the current net asset value when selling them. There are ongoing fees and expenses associated with owning units of an investment fund. An investment fund must prepare disclosure documents that contain key information about the fund. You can find more detailed information about the fund in these documents. The indicated rates of return are the historical annual compounded total returns including changes in unit value and reinvestment of all distributions and do not take into account certain fees (such as redemption fees or optional charges) or income taxes payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Investment funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated.

The Portfolio refers to the positions held by the underlying fund, OCP Credit Trust. Through a forward agreement, the return of the Fund is dependent on the return of the Portfolio. Performance figures for the Fund are based on Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and were based on audited financial statements through December 31, 2014 and unaudited monthly estimates thereafter. Performance figures for the Fund include distributions paid during the relevant period and are calculated net of expenses and fees. Returns for the Fund may diverge from the returns for the Portfolio for several reasons including the incurrence of expenses and payment of distributions by the Fund.
